"UNCO Food Futures" is designed to redistribute the spread between the producer price and the retail price

The profit spread for investors in "UNCO Food Futures"

Distribution of costs in the retail price of fresh food*

- Value for both sides, there is an astronomical markup on food products between the farm the shelf – we redistribute it with delivering value to both producers and investors/consumers
- Multiple use:
 - Ensuring supply and delivery of the products
 - Price insurance
 - Investment or speculative purchase

“UNCO Food Futures” The way invest from $1

Key Points:

- Deliverable – future holders can exchange their contracts for food products in a network of delivery points
- Food products – we cover an array of basic products from potatoes to milk
- Futures – the contracts have different tenors for delivery in future
- Exchange - the futures can be traded

“UNCO Food Futures” are not a paper, but always real food.

- We have a smart way of developing and constantly expanding freemium “UNCO Eco-System” - network of food products delivery points (retail shops) and a network of suppliers (farmers and traders)
- We have a cheap and efficient way for accessing retail consumers and farmers
- We have a contract enforcement mechanism

MARKET OPPORTUNITY

Costly Loans

High LIBOR/EURIBOR rates lead to costly loans for farmers and distributors resulting in heightened production expenses

Investment Opportunities And High Interest Rates

It presents an opportunity for investors, as incomes grow with each euro invested.

Higher Net Costs

This, in turn, drives up retail prices, causing a decline in consumer demand

Rising Retail Prices

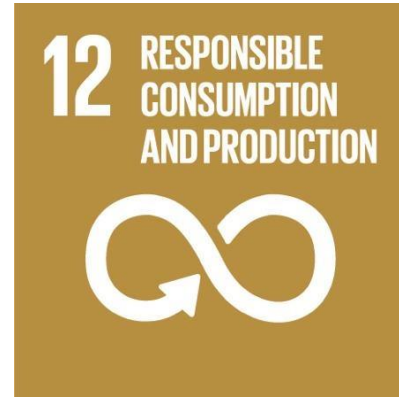

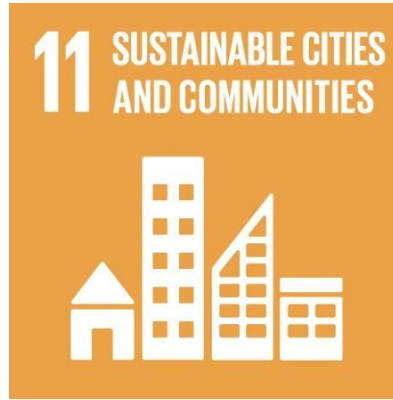

The buyer is looking for discount solutions

"UNCO Food Futures" is a investment solution for:

- ✓ Investors who are looking for solid and highly profitable opportunities;
- ✓ Buyers who are looking for freshness and lower prices;
- ✓ Producers who are looking for cheaper ways to get financed
